Exclusive property in an Art Nouveau-style building.

The building was designed by architect Janis Alksnis and was completely renovated in 1999, preserving the original layout and historical elements. The house combines modern comfort with elegance.

The apartment is located on the 4th floor and has a modern elevator. The building features a concierge and video surveillance. Entrance to the stairwell is secured with a code lock, and access to the courtyard is through automatic gates.

In 2016, the apartment underwent a designer renovation,...
