A 2-room apartment is on sale in a renovated home. Right now, the property is very successfully rented out in the short term on a good income. This is a great investment opportunity.

in 2018, after a project agreed on the building authority, the house was renovated, and all water and sewer risers and electricity were replaced. The apartment has an individual gas heating system with adjustable radiators. The house is run by the association; utilities are very cheap. The monthly management fee is ~ EUR 20.

The apartment has very quiet all the...
