We offer a four-room apartment, next to a park and business centers, in a building of the Art Nouveau, in the center of Riga.

The building was built in 1899 according to the design of the well-known Latvian architect Konstantin Pekshines. The ideal location provides future owners with various opportunities for everyday and leisure activities. During the reconstruction of the building, new technologies were used (glass elevators, ventilated glass dome, walkways between floors), which significantly increase the comfort associated with living...
