Two land plots are offered in a quiet and green area of the town of Ogre — away from the hustle and noise of the city. Both plots are located next to each other and can be purchased either together or separately.

An excellent place for those who wish to build a private house in the suburbs, closer to nature, between the forest and the river. The neighborhood is home to responsive and friendly neighbors.

Location advantages:

The Ogre River flows nearby;

Several popular walking and recreation spots are located in the area, such as:...
