A warm and bright apartment in a quiet part of Iļģuciems.

The apartment is located on the 3rd floor of a brick building (Khrushchev-era project). The windows face both sides, and the apartment is not a corner unit — it is located in the middle of the building. A major renovation was carried out 20 years ago; minor cosmetic updates are now needed. Recently, all risers in the building have been replaced.

Convenient layout:

- Entrance hall with a metal front door and space for furniture
- Separate kitchen — compact yet very spacious, equi...
