Dzidriņas is currently one of the fastest-growing areas for private homes in the Pierīga region. The local council is investing nearly one million euros in road and infrastructure development in 2025–2026. If you dream of a peaceful life surrounded by nature, where you can enjoy privacy, birdsong and fresh air, this property will be an excellent choice.

The house was built to a bespoke design in 2017. High-quality building materials have been used. The walls are constructed from 380mm blocks with an additional 100mm of rock wool insulation,...
