Art nouveau and neoclassical gem in the historical center of Riga, across from the Daile Theater. The former Feierabenda, later Zaitsev house, designed by Konstantīns Pēkšēns in 1909.

The spacious apartment is located on the third floor of the building with a facade entrance from Baznīcas street. The high ceilings and wide windows on the sunny side are the things that make the apartment cozy, pleasant and bright. The apartment has been rebuilt and overhauled. The reconstruction is coordinated and in accordance with the plan. The entire apar...
