A scenic oasis with a pond in Krogsils

The plot is located in a scenic location, away from highway noise, between the old and new Via Baltica road. It is the correct form. The neighborhood is very green, there are only a few residential houses in the neighborhood, which are behind the trees and are practically invisible. On one side, the property borders the territory of Riga Forests, which will not be transformed in the foreseeable future and will remain a forest territory.

The Titurga river divides the property in two parts. A large pond...
