Newly renovated apartment

One of the greenest districts of Riga. Low utility bills. The apartment has been recently renovated.

Some improvements have been made to the layout. One "L"-shaped room has been made into two - one serves as a living room and the other as a bedroom. Both rooms are isolated.

During the renovation of the living room, a doorspace without a door has been left, so that more light enters the hallway and to create a feeling of spaciousness. The new owner can install the door as he sees fit. From the living room there is...
