The unusual house is the embodiment of early 20th century architectural design. It was built in the functionalist architectural style in 1933-1935. It was designed by architects Alfred Karr and Kurt Betge from the architectural office "A. Karr & K. Baetge". In 2004, the house was renovated according to the project of Sarma Norde Arhitekti. The apartment is located on the 4th floor of the house and consists of 2 rooms, a bedroom and a living room, which is combined with a kitchen. The kitchen with the living room is very spacious.
